

Reed S. Clegg

Reed S. Clegg, 72, died Feb. 16, 1985 of heart failure.

Born June 9, 1912 to Brigham and Clio Clegg, married Alberta Galloway June 13, 1934. Attended East High School, the University of Southern California, the University of Utah and Northwestern University. He interned at St. Luke's Hospital in Chicago. Worked at the Mayo Clinic in Rochester, Minnesota before joining the U.S. Army medical Corps. He began a private practice in 1945.

Member of the Salt Lake County Medical Society, Utah State Medical Society, American Medical Association, American Academy of Orthopedic Surgeons, American Board of Orthopedic Surgeons, International Board of Orthopedic Surgeons and the Western Orthopedic Association. He served in the U.S. Army Medical Corp in World War II in the Vietnam War. During World War II he served in the European theater and was the first American to enter Hitler's Reich Chancellery in Berlin after the Nazi evacuation.

He served with the American Heart Association, the Chamber of Commerce Travel Board, Salt Lake City Civic Auditorium Board, Salt Police Development and Promotion Board and made four trips to Central Mexico to provide medical aid to isolated Tarahumara Indians.

He was affiliated with LDS Hospital, Primary Children's Medical Center, Holy Cross Hospital and University Medical Center; St. Luke's in Chicago and the Mayo Clinic in Rochester, Minn. He delivered numerous professional papers and lectures throughout his career.

He is survived by his wife; brothers, David and Brigham; sister, Blanche Clarke; a son, Steven; daughters, Betty Richins and Carl Dixon; seven grandchildren and three great-grandchildren.

Memorial services will be Thursday, noon, Ensign 2nd Ward, 9th Ave. and D Street, in lieu of flowers, the family suggests contributions to the University of Utah Athletic Scholarship Fund. His body was donated to the University of Utah Medical Center.

T 2/18

N3 2/20

Reed S. Clegg

Reed S. Clegg, 72, died Feb. 16, 1985 of heart failure.

Born June 9, 1912 to Brigham and Clio Clegg, married Alberta Galloway June 13, 1934. Attended East High School, the University of Southern California, the University of Utah and Northwestern University. He interned at St. Luke's Hospital in Chicago. Worked at the Mayo Clinic in Rochester, Minnesota before joining the U.S. Army medical Corps. He began a private practice in 1945.

Member of the Salt Lake County Medical Society, Utah State Medical Society, American Medical Association, American Academy of Orthopedic Surgeons, American Board of Orthopedic Surgeons, International Board of Orthopedic Surgeons and the Western Orthopedic Association.

He served in the U.S. Army Medical Corp in World War II and the Vietnam War. During World War II he served in the European theater and was the first American to enter Hitler's Reich Chancellery in Berlin after the Nazi evacuation.

He served with the American Heart Association, the Chamber of Commerce Travel Board, Salt Lake City Civic Auditorium Board, Salt Police Development and Promotion Board and made four trips to Central Mexico to provide medical aid to isolated Tarahumara Indians.

He was affiliated with LDS Hospital, Primary Children's Medical Center, Holy Cross Hospital and University Medical Center; St. Luke's in Chicago and the Mayo Clinic in Rochester, Minn. He delivered numerous professional papers and lectures throughout his career.

He is survived by his wife; brothers, David and Brigham; sister, Blanche Clarke; a son, Steven; daughters, Betty Richins and Carl Dixon; seven grandchildren and three great-grandchildren.

Memorial services will be Thursday, noon, Ensign 2nd Ward, 9th Ave. and D Street, in lieu of flowers, the family suggests contributions to the University of Utah Athletic Scholarship Fund. His body was donated to the University of Utah Medical Center.

T 2/18

N3 2/20